Form Teacher's Comment
Ismael continues to display signs of reservedness; however, is committed to exhibiting a pleasant personality and is respectful to both teachers and peers. He understands the role of education to life long learning and is steadily making strides academically. As he transitions to senior school, assist him in developing good study habits that will foster vast improvement in the core subject areas. It was a pleasure working with him this term.
Ms. Thelwell / Coordinator
