Form Teacher's Comment
Daniel continues to display his pleasant personality, daily. In addition, there has been a stark improvement with regards to his relationship with teachers and his peers. It is still evident that additional help is needed at home with regards to his academics. As he transitions to senior school, please encourage him to develop strategies to overcome the content areas that he currently struggles with such as, reading over and asking for help. Please make a conscious effort to instill in him the role of education to life - long learning. It was a pleasure working with him this term.
Ms. Thelwell / Coordinator
