Homeroom Teacher's Comments & Signature:	Grade Supervisor's Comments & Signature:
Andiro is a bright student who can contribute meaningfully to the school environment. Unfortunately, poor attendance, disruptive talkativeness in class, and a suspension have heavily overshadowed his positive qualities this term. If he can refine his focus and improve his daily presence, Andiro will undoubtedly see a vast improvement in his overall school experience. - Z. M.	Academic performance is developing very poorly across all of his assigned subjects. A poor attitude towards work and excessive talkativeness disrupt his own learning and task completion. Understanding of subject content is heavily limited by these distractions and his frequent absenteeism. More consistent study habits and focus are necessary to see any academic improvement. - N. W.
